THE WAY

DEC. 30, 30, JAN. 1

Rated PG-13, 115 min.
Open yourself up to this thoughtful, moving personal adventure.
- Rolling Stone

This is a powerful and inspirational story about family, friends, and the challenges we all face. Martin Sheen stars as Tom, an American doctor who travels to France to collect the remains of his adult son killed in the Pyrenees in a storm while walking the Camino de Santiago. Tom decides to embark on the historical pilgrimage to honor his son's desire to finish the journey.

BEING ELMO

FEB. 3, 4, 5

Not Rated 80 min.
A marvelous movie.
- Entertainment Weekly

"Being Elmo" won the Special Jury Award at the 2011 Sundance Film Festival. Most American parents are very much aware of Elmo, the child-like fuzzy red Muppet on Sesame Street who has become a favorite among the show's youthful audience. Far fewer people know the name Kevin Clash, the puppeteer who brings Elmo to life. Filmmaker Constance Marks introduces viewers to the man behind the Muppet in this documentary.

MARGIN CALL

JAN. 6, 7, 8

Rated R, 109 min.
One of the strongest American films of the year. - The New Yorker

This is a thriller focused on the key players at an investment firm during one perilous 24-hour period in the early stages of the 2008 financial crisis. When an entry-level analyst unlocks information that could prove to be the downfall of the firm, a roller-coaster ride ensues as decisions both financial and moral catapult the lives of all involved to the brink of bankruptcy.

MARTHA MARCY MAY MARLENE

FEB. 10, 11, 12

Rated R, 101 min.
Ambitious and effective.
- Roger Ebert

A hit at last year's Sundance Film Festival, this film stars Elizabeth Olsen as Martha, a troubled young woman haunted by painful memories and increasing paranoia after fleeing a cult. It is a sensitive treatment of a complex subject that heralds the arrival of talented T. Sean Durkin behind the camera, and promising new star Elizabeth Olsen (sister to Mary Kate and Ashley).

REVENGE OF THE ELECTRIC CAR

FEB. 24, 25, 26

Rated PG-13, 90 min.
A surprisingly upbeat prognosis on the transition to electric vehicles.
- Hollywood Reporter

In 2006, filmmaker Chris Paine examined the short and troubled history of General Motors' EV1, an electric powered automobile that was fast, efficient and taken off the market under mysterious circumstances. Five years later Paine takes a look at four companies who are trying to put electric autos back onto America's highways in this documentary.
